

Research October 2017 in Busenbach for Schaefer family 1795

What did we know?

Our clients ancestor Enoch Ignaz Schaefer, born 1795 in Busenbach, Baden near Karlsruhe. Enoch Ignaz was a linenweaver. He married Barbara Scherer in 1825 in St. Katharina Church in Busenbach. Barbara's baptism date in the same church was in March 1803. Our clients were three brothers who wanted to visit the hometowns of their great grandparents and the churches St. Katharina and St. Cyriak in Stupferich.

Barbara Scherer

What did we find?

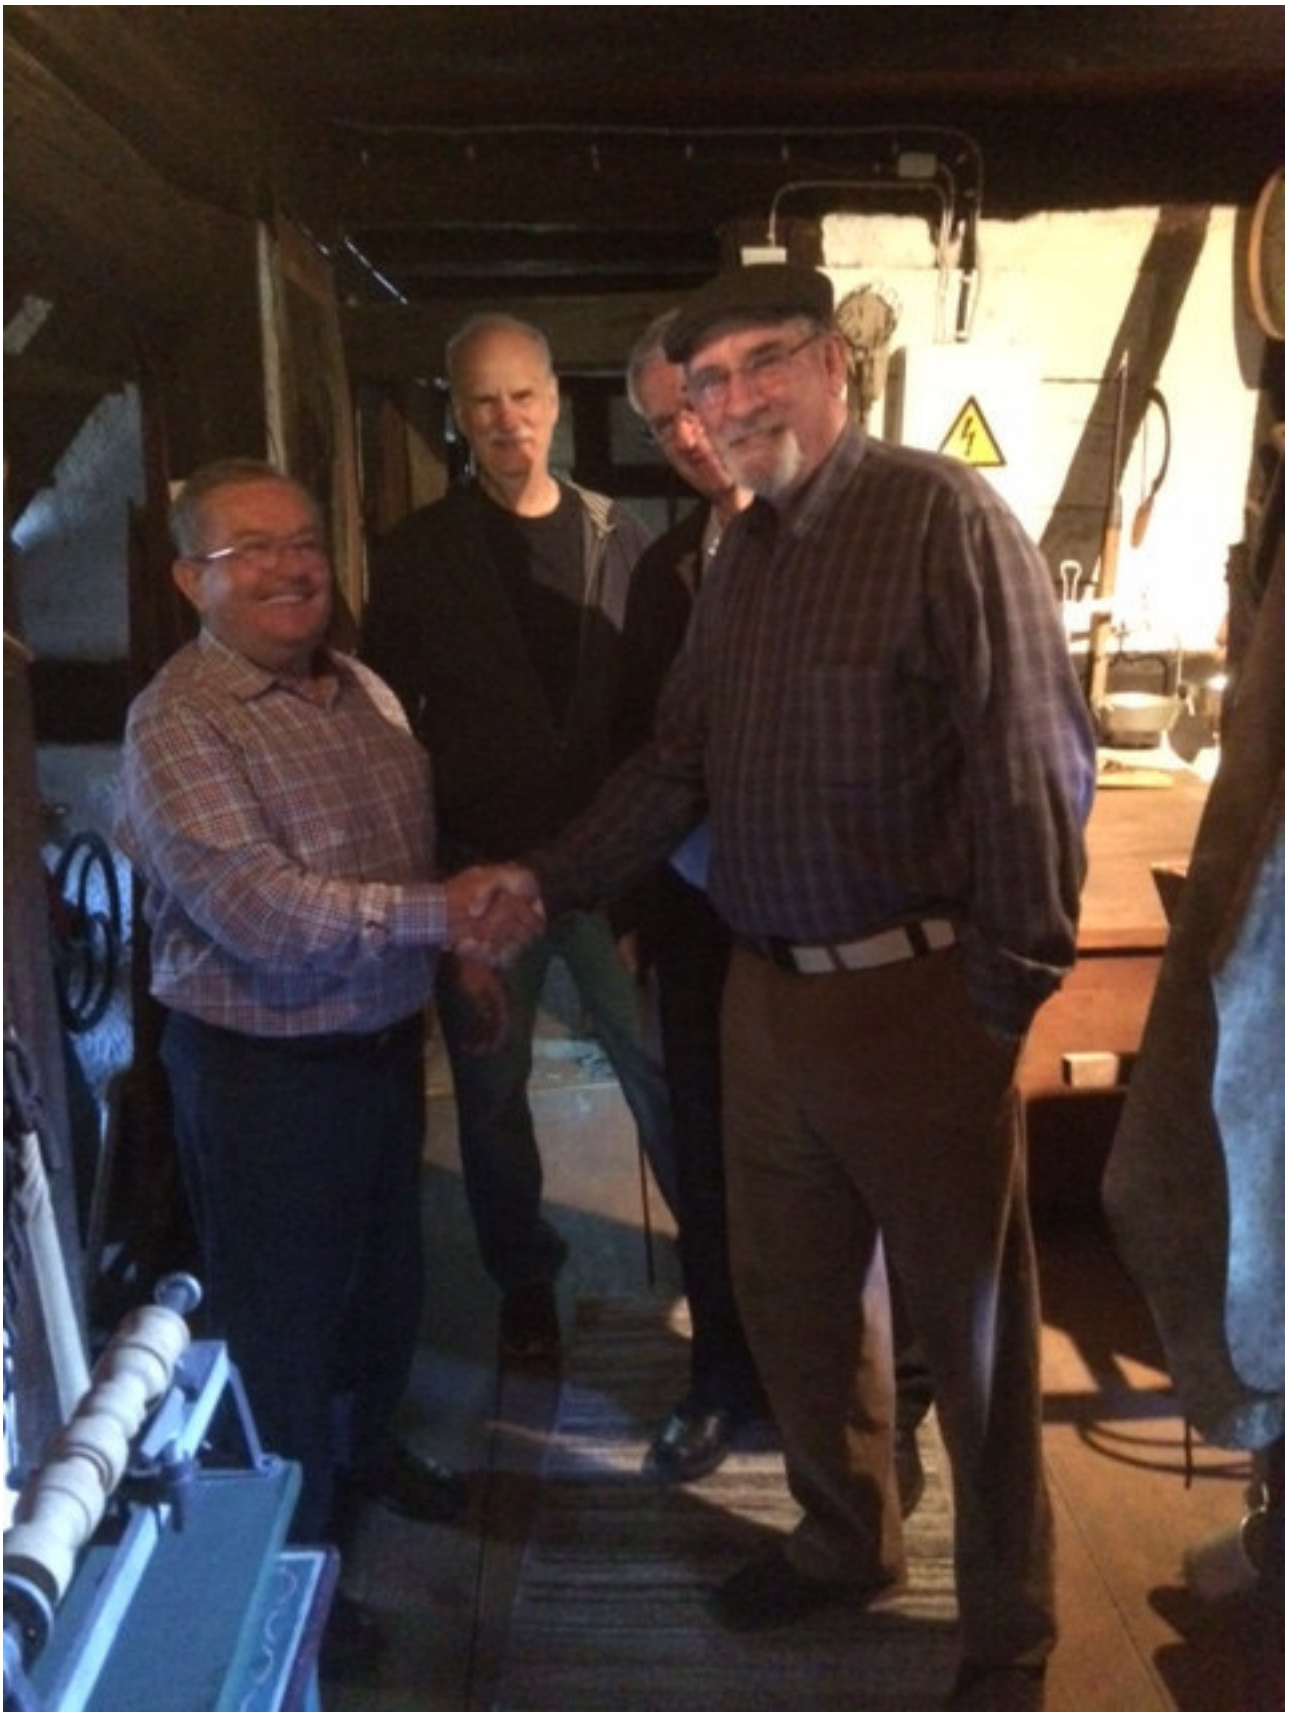

We could provide a family tree for the Schaefer family. We also found the marriage document of Barbara Scherer and Enoch Schaefer as well as the death records of Barbara Schaefer's parents Eva and Johann Michael. We had contacted some Schaefer's who still live in the region, but Schaefer (Shepard) is a very common name and we could not trace back any relatives who still lived in Busenbach. By the help of a local genealogist we got many further information about the Schaefer family which were very helpful to complete the family tree.

What else?

When we picked up the three Schaeffer brothers in their hotel in Karlsruhe we took them to Busenbach for a visit in the local little museum. The museum has a collection of all kind of kitchenware, farming tools, furnitures. Mr. Becker who takes care of the museum was a retired town employé and he had a lot of additional information about the history of Busenbach.

During our visit in that museum, Mr. Becker had called a neighbor who came to join us and brought his family tree where some of the ancestors had matched. So this was another enrichment for the Schaefer's family tree.
